

ACCOMPANYING PROGRAMME TO THE EXHIBITION

Introduction to This Happy Day of Culture in Tivoli, Sunday, 2. 12.

- 15.00: Guided tour, conducted by Museum Information Officer, Gregor Dražil.

Admission free. The exhibition is also on view free of charge on Monday, 3 December.

Slovenian Day of Culture at MGLC, Friday, 8. 2.

- 10.00: When a stroll through the exhibition becomes a dance, guided tour for families, led by Evin Hadžialjević.
- 11.00–15.00: Drop-in tours with the MGLC curators. Admission free.

Tuesday guided tours: Every other Tuesday at 17.00: 18. 12., 15. 1., 29. 1., 12. 2.

The guided tours are conducted in Slovenian (beginning at 17.00) and in English (beginning at 17.30), led by Museum Information Officer, Gregor Dražil.

Occasionally also guided tours by guests; please follow www.mglc-lj.si.

Curator's tour:

Guided tour by curator Kate Sutton at the end of the exhibition, on Tuesday, 26. 2.

Travelling into the body, workshop Sunday, 3. 2., 11.00–12.30

The dance and movement workshop observing artworks through the language of the body and the senses is intended for adults. Led by Evin Hadžialjević, MA (Art of Movement), dancer and dance teacher.

Fair Game: guided tour for KUL abonma subscription holders, Friday, 18. 1., 17.00–18.00

Free guided tour. KUL abonma subscription holders can also enjoy a free tour of the exhibition in January.

When a stroll through the exhibition becomes a dance, guided tour and workshop for children, Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10.00–11.30: 22. 1., 24. 1., 29. 1., 31. 1., 5. 2., 7. 2.

For organised groups in the Bobri festival programme, led by Evin Hadžialjević, admission free.

Family fold'r: Shuffle and Shape

Artist Nathalie Du Pasquier is a master of colours, shapes, objects and genres, which she intertwines into a wide range of visual graphic combinations and compositions in the exhibition. Available in Slovenian, English and Italian, free of charge with the purchase of tickets (from 15 December).